Discussion	Statewide FYSPRT Action Items: Substance Use Treatment Services	• SUD services feel like they don't have good wraparound services. ○ Feels like a revolving door • Because there is not a lot of support for anyone, the problems are moving through the generations • Providers are seeing a serious gap in services in the area, most services are only accessible outside of the region

		• Because youth do not understand their rights, they are not attempting to access care that creates a barrier • There needs to be more prevention materials that address different populations and not just students • There is no support in school that doesn't lead to negative consequences

Presentation	Who, What, Why of FYSPRT with Karen Kelly
	Washinton State Community Connector (WSCC)
		• What needs work
		  ○ Bringing more diverse populations to the meetings
		  ○ Engaging different groups (Tribes, religious, etc)
